platform in reserve, my speech is already made, and this is the opportunity of a lifetime for silence.

"It is doubly fortunate to come after the great head of the ticket, who has already spoken to the whole country, on every occasion, on every phase of the political situation, and has touched nothing that he did not illuminate as well as adorn.

"The good fortune for us all at this moment is further enhanced by the fact that we are nearing the close of our leader's first term. There is the true inspiration of the canvass—a magnificently successful Administration at home and abroad, which gives the country now the substantial guarantes, not merely of fair speech, but of wise and satisfactory performance. It has been able; it has been clean sud of good report, and the whole country knows it and is at rest. No intelligent man. North or south, really doubts that the honor of the nation and the integrity of the Executive Department are sale in the hands of Heniamin Harrison.

"Well: gentlemen, is the country to shandon its present prosperous security and recklessly venture out upon the sea of changes, in the tariff, in reciprocity, in banking, in currency, in shipping which the Chicago platform proposes? That depends upon whether the inited Republican party of the State of New York does its full duty and sexets its full strength for the next six weeks. Colored Voters in Louistann Threaten to NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 28 .- The condition of affairs in the Republican ranks in Louisians is | Federal quarantine of vessels bringing immiworse than ever. The compromise brought about by Messrs. Long and Huston, the national committeemen. last night, fell through to-day, and despite the vigorous attempts to heal party differences the factions remain hopelessly split. The Warmoth faction conference committee refused to abide by the agreement, and so announced to-day. Vigorous kicking is being indulged in by the leading colored men of the State, who declare that President Harrison's inactivity in the matter of allowing his representative in Louisiana, ex-Gov. Warmoth, to totally disregard the interests of the colored race will cost him dearly. H. H. Blunt, the leading local politician among the colored people, in an interview today comes out boldly and says that unless Warmoth be called down by the President and made to give recognition to the colored men, the race will send its ablest representatives into Ohio. Illinois, and Iowa, to stump for Weaver, or any one, in preference to Harrison, who is charged with ingratitude in more than one instance to the colored men of this section, and whose doings with reference to the race it is proposed to make public if things do not change shortly.

ROTH CALLED TO SEE HIM. Mrs. McMasters and Mms. Martel Sought

Frank H. McMasters, aged 24, of 51 East Eighty-seventh street, cashier for Leander Richardson, proprietor of the Dramatic News, was charged in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday with retaining $50 out of the $60 paid by Dr. Moore for advertising. Ho was held in $500 ball for examination. It was alleged by Mr. Richardson that Monasters although married, spent money on an actress named Mme. Muriel. McMasters was also said to be fond of playing the races, and it is alleged that during the time he has been in Mr. Richardson's employ he must have taken about $2,000. When McMasters was locked up in the West Thirtieth atreet station Tuesday night Mme. Muriel called to see him.

His wife also called and was angry when not permitted to see her husband. She was at the court yesterday and had an affecting interview with him. He denied that he had taken any of the money claimed in the business shortage, and declared that the loss was due to the reduced rates of advertising. He said he knew Mme. Muriel, but only in a business way. She had called upon him for something to do, and he had promised to aid her as he had done others.

McMasters stated that he could explain how there was a discrepancy in the Dr. Moore advertisement by having reduced his rate of advertisement by having reduced his rate of interventiant. This he did on his own responsibility. James Kileen, the prisoner's father-inlaw, gave bail for examination. PRANK H. M'MASTERS.

JEWELLER ENUDSON IS PUEELED. Was It an Ingenious Compiency that Rob-bed Him of His Diamonds !

Jeweller Knudson of Perth Amboy, who was so cleverly buncoed out of $500 worth of dia-monds in this city last Thursday, is sorely per-Mrs. Ray of Cartaret, or Mrs. Arnold, as he knew her, to whom he was going to sell the diamonds, had a share in the swindle or not. Mr. Knudson's trip to Police Headquarters with Mrs. Arnold, after De Witt, who accompanted them to New York, had disappeared with the diamonds, appears to have been rather peculiar, as Knudson relates it.

He says that he stated his case to a detec-tive named Huisizer, but there is no such man on Inspector Steere's staff. Mr. Knudson was very much provoked when Mrs. Arnold was allowed to go. She told the detective, Knud-son said yesterday, that she had also been swindled by De Witt, who had carried off the $750 which she had drawn from her bank to pay for the diamonds.

Last Monday Knudson called at Police Headquarters and asked for a warrant for DeWitt's arrest. Detective Nugent went with him somewhere, where he doesn't know. He was told that the woman ought to be present. On Tuesday Knudson called at Police Headquarters again, where he met Mrs. Arnold. He heard her called Mrs. Ray, and asked her why De Witt had not introduced her to him under her right name. "He thought you would understand that name better." Knudson says the woman re-plied. "He thought you would understand that name better." Knudson says the woman replied.

Knudson said yesterday that Mrs. Ray told him that De Witt had taken the money with which she expected to pay for the diamonds, and she said she had been compelled to pawn a watch in consequence. She showed him a ticket from Simpson's pawn store on the Bowery to prove the truth of her statement.

Knudson could not quite persuade himself that Mrs. Ray had helped to swindle him, so he left the city and returned to Perth Amboy.

Later Knudson learned that De Witt Mrs. Ray, and Mrs. C. Neil had been staying for a woek at the Central Hotel in Perth Amboy. He also heard, he says, that on the day when he and De Witt and Mrs. Ray went to New York Mrs. Neil received a telegram and hurriedly left the hotel. When Knudson learned that the three people had left their bill for $42 unpaid he changed his mind once more and concluded that Mrs. Ray had helped to swindle him.

At the time when Knudson says De Witt told him Mrs. Atnold was a wealthy woman living at Cartaret, Mrs. J. Ray was stopping at the Central Hotel for $2 a day.

Mr. Cox. the telegraph operator at the Cartaret attent freight agent at the station. A drummer who called at Knudson's store on Tuesday said, from the description and ways of De Witt that he though the was a man well known in England and Mexico, who had employed the same bunco game with success many times before.

At Police Headquarters yesterday Inspector Stoers said that he had heard nothing from Knudson, and knew nothing of the alleged bunco game by which Knudson had lost his diamonds.

Ballard sprang upon him and killed him in a most cowardly manner. Several years ago Ballard and Shafer's stepson loved the same girl. She favored young Shafer.

Ballard began writing scurrillous postal cards to her. He was discovered and convicted. When the sentence, six months in the county jall, was pronounced, he said it was only a short time to serve, and threatened to kill Shafer.

The Judge then gave him eighteen months in the Columbus, Ohio, penitentiary. Ballard returned here yestarday. He gave himself up after the murder, but says that when they met. Shafer attempted to cowhide him and he shot him in self-defence, but the body of the dead man, found in the bed of his wagon, contradicts this assertion. Shafer was about 50 years of age. Ballard is only 25 years old.

MIKE M'DONALD INDICTED.

The Grand Jury Holds Him for Trial for Attempted Bribery. CHICAGO, Sept. 28.-Michael C. McDonald was indicted to-day by the Grand Jury, the charge being an attempt to bribe a public officer. The allegations say that McDonald gave to Charles Woodman, a Police Justice of Chicago, $300, with the intent to bribe him to decide for the defendants in the Garfield Park cases. The indictment was voted on by the jury this afternoon, but was not returned into court, owing to the absence of the Judges.

It will be presented at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

court, owing to the absence of the Judgea. It will be presented at 10 o'clock to-morrow. Thus the $300 matter was acted upon, while the $50,000 story will hardly be investigated energetically. Ed Corrigan swore he knew nothing of the alleged transaction, and those essential witnesses. Mayor Washburn and Chief of Police McClaughrey, are not in town, and will probably not return until the present Grand Jury ceases to exist.

The hearing of the Garfield Park Club's injunction against the police was continued all day before Master in Chancery Barber. Contrary to expectation, the city put witnesses on the stand, and an effort was made to show that the racing was detrimental to neighboring properly interests, and that the sport was patronized by improper characters. In almost every case the witness proved a better one for the track than for the city.

Sidney J. Rawson, a witness, who swore to a number of complaints which resulted in the recent raids, testified that he did not know the persons of whom he complained, aithough in the complaints he swore formally that they and their alleged illegal acts were known to him. As soon as he had finished his testimony a warrant for his arrest on a charge of perjury was issued. Arguments may be reached to-morrow.

BOTH ARRESTED FOR BIGAMY. He Had a Wife.

Morris Wolff, a salesman working for a lothing house at 695 Broadway, and a woman old. a former actress, were arrested yesterday by Detective-Sergeants Heidelberg and Freel of the Central Office. Both are charged with bigamy, he for marrying when he had a wife alive, and she for marrying him knowing he had a wife.

At the Tombs Police Court the prisoners At the Tombs Police Court the prisoners were remanded for examination. They could not furnish ball, and were locked up.
The complainant in the case is Mrs. Jesse Wolff, who lives at 163 East 119th street. She alleges that on the 8th of March, 1874, she was married to Wolff by a rabbi in the synagogue in East Ninth street. There were three children born to the couple. One is dead and the other two are boys, 15 and 17 years old respectively. The family lived comfortably together until five years ago, when husband and wife parted. Wolff, however, up to six months ago paid his wife $7 weekly. The woman Falk, it is said, caused the separation of the couple. man Falk, it is said, caused the separation of the couple.

When Mrs. Wolff began to miss her weekly payments she made an investigation. It was then that she learned that Wolff had been married to Miss Falk under the name of Moritz Wolff in the synagogue at Fifth avenue and 125th street. The ceremony was per-formed by Rabbi Abraham Wirmark, and is on record. The couple have been living at the St. Nicholas Hotel in Washington place, and it was there that the arrests were made. Wolff, when questioned at the Police court, gave the home of wife No. 1 as his address.

DROWNED WHILE DUCK SHOOTING The Receil of a Gun Upset the Boat One of the Sportsmen Was Lost.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 28-J. E. Tennysor who was until recently manager of the Lynchburg Opera House, accompanied by F. R. Emerson, secured a sail boat yesterday afternoon and went duck shooting on the James Biver. Mr. Tennyson shot at a stump on the River. Mr. Tennyson shot at a stump on the opposite side of the bank, and his gun being heavily loaded, the force of the discharge made him lose his balance, throwing him into the water and causing the boat to upset.

Mr. Emerson being the better swimmer, succeeded in getting Mr. Tennyson on one end of the boat and then started for the shore, swimming and pushing the boat at the same time. He had gone only a short distance when he was horrified to hear Tennyson say: "Goodby, Ed." and of seeing him sink. The body was found. Mr. Tennyson leaves a widow and two children.

Mr. Verboeff's Career at Yale.

New Haven, Sept. 28.—A great deal has been written recently in regard to John M. Verhoeff, the missing member of Lieut. Peary's Arctic exploring party. Numerous stories are told of Verhoeff's eccentric doings while at Yale. Verhoeff was a member of the class of 1800 in the Sheffield Scientific School, and was 1800 in the Sheffield Scientific School, and was well known in New Haven. He was well liked as a rule. The story of his being expelled from college for gambling is not correct. Prof. Brush, the director of the Scientific School, and who remembers Verhoeff and the gambling incident very well, said this morning: "Verhoeff was not expelled from Yale, neither did he leave college in disgrace. The gambling story has been magnified, and was in no way the cause of his leaving the Scientific School. He entered in the class of 1850, and remained through his junior year, but some time during his sonior year decided that he could not graduate and withdrew." Those in this city who knew Verhoeff best have little doubt that he is dead.

A Hig Woollen Mill Burned,

WARREN, Mass., Sept. 28.-The woollen mill of Sayles & Jenks, together with its outbuildngs and storehouse, was burned this afternoon. The fire was discovered just as the moch. The fire was discovered just as the machinery was started after the dinner hour, and, with the help of a strong west wind, the whole structure was in flames in a very short time. The town has no fire apparatus, so nothing could be done to stay the progress of the conflagration. The loss is about $300,000. There is about $270,000 insurance. The mill employed 200 hands.

Gorham Solid Silver.

AND OF EVERY VARIETY OF DESIGN COLOR, AND WEIGHT, STOCK SECOND VEHICLES

In regard to Wedding Presents, a popular belief is that, in Solid Silver, they are necessarily very costly. In years gone by this was true, and gifts could only be indulged in by the richer classes. Now the number of articles to be found who describes herself as Sophie Falk, 28 years at comparatively small prices would make a long list. The same attention is given to the finish and style of these as to the most expensive tea service.

The smaller presents include many table pieces. Articles for the toilet and other small trinkets.
